Sunrise Sunset, Sunrise Sunset

Swiftly fly the years

One season following another

Laden with happiness and tears

Photographs bring to mind our jumbled memories. The photographer is the musician playing his bittersweet tune. Pause, look, smile, and remember. The song will never be played again, yet neither will it be forgotten.

Framingham South High School
Framingham, Massachusetts

We all have a melody within ourselves that makes us special . . .

Even though the sounds are different it's so hard to sort the tunes . . .

We have given of ourselves. Let the music flow, and know the love of living . . .

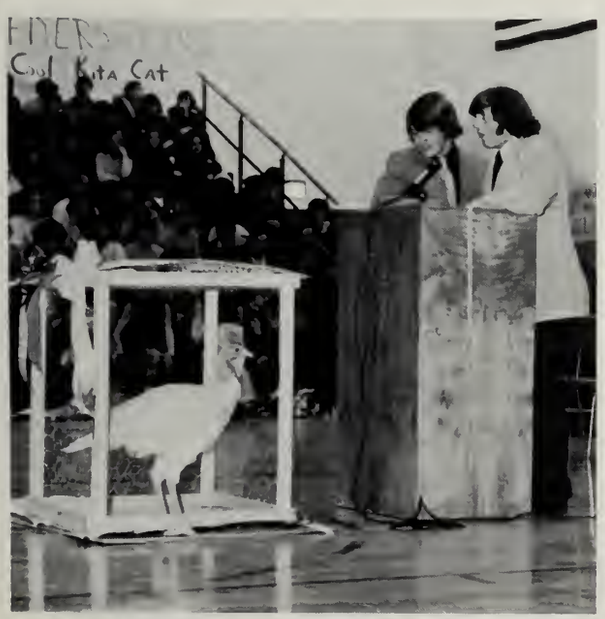

GILL

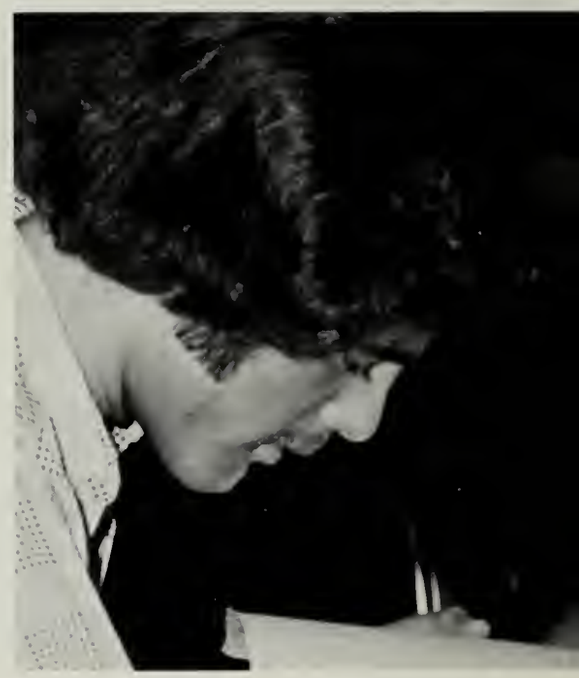

Capture for me, like a camera, all that has been sung . . .

Gaze at a picture and the song springs to life again . . .

SENIORS

DEDICATION . . .

To Mr. Herbert Waugh

"As we go we know that we are leaving our best friend.
A friend who taught us right from wrong and weak from strong — that's a lot to learn. What can we give you in return?"

. . . In Appreciation

Mr. Jack Hester
Senior Class Advisor

We cannot live simply by teaching and being taught.
We need laughter,
a kind word,
and a helping hand.
Without these things, we will never make it.
We made it.
Thanks.

Mrs. Kay Ward

THE MASTER OF THE UNIVERSE

He is the master of the universe
And He belongs
To me
He saved me from a life
Of sin
He purified my soul within
He is the master of the universe
And He belongs
To me

" . . . them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him . . . (and) we which . . . remain shall be caught up together with them . . . to meet the Lord . . . and so shall we ever be with the Lord."

In Memoriam

Peter C. Venne
1956-1973

As with the water from the fall of a rock — he rippled outward.
And not until the ripples stopped — like a heartbeat — did I realize how calm the water was before
And how it was again becalmed.

The Harriers finished their season with a record of 3 and 6. Not a bad showing considering the team was in the depths of a building year. Captain Chuck Hayden was the only varsity senior member and an unquestionable team leader. He surely laid a strong foundation upon which 74's team can build.

Our 1973 Field Hockey team was one of the largest and most highly skilled group of girls to play for South since head coach Catherine Walker began working with the team in 1963. Over 80 girls worked diligently every day, and with the addition of a third coach, the freshmen played a schedule of games, as a team, for the first time.

Both the varsity and junior varsity squads went undefeated for the second consecutive year. The varsity team finished runner-up for the league championship, missing the title by only half a game (a tie with the league winner). The JV's won their league race, and with many of those girls filling varsity positions next year, the future is very promising!

Practicing head balls on Saturday mornings at nine A.M. was murder! However, the season was one of good times and will surely be remembered. The greatest accomplishment was the victory over Braintree, the first in the history of South High Soccer. The team played well, and the underclassmen are looking forward to a new season, to step into the cleats of the graduating seniors. With the high spirits and help of the new coach, Castellanos, next season should prove to be successful.

TOP ROW: E. Latham-Brown, P. Savas, J. Savas, O. Moore, A. Cassavant, J. Barbieri, D. Frey, M. Baugh, S. Murray, M. Malone, R. Tierney. MIDDLE ROW: J. Rigopoulos, J. Frey, J. Bernhart, E. Abraham, K. VanCamp (Co-capt) C. Hayden (Co-capt), T. Kiely, A. Chaves, K. Foster.

Youth and inexperience became the keynote words for the Flyers 1973-1974 indoor track team. With only five returning lettermen, many underclassmen new to track were put to the test early.

Outstanding performances were registered early in the season. Co-Captain Chuck Hayden established a new school record in the mile when he ran 4:31 at the Falmouth Invitational Meet. Other performers who established personal bests were Vic Liberatore in the two mile, Jim Barbieri in the 600, Scott Murray in the 1000, and Jim Savas in the shot put. Larry Newton in the 50-yard dash and Brian Brosnahan in the hurdles were also important point-getters.

Three individuals who also had outstanding seasons and did well in post-season meets were Co-Captain Pete VanCamp, Ernie Latham-Brown, and Chuck Hayden. In the Finals of the state meet, VanCamp placed 3rd in the high jump, Latham-Brown placed 3rd in the 300, and Hayden placed 4th in the mile. Congratulations to these boys, and to the remaining members of the team.

Boys Gymnastics requires muscular coordination and strength as well as courage and dedication. These prerequisites were tested this season in all seven meets. Although it wasn't a winning season, the results were promising for the future. When Captain Steve D'Angelo leaves we will lose a strong competitor and a fine gymnast. Although the seniors will be leaving, the team still has much potential for the coming season.

The South High Girls Gymnastic Team enjoyed a successful season, winning six out of nine league meets. More than twenty girls were on the team and worked dutifully comprising routines and improving skills in the four competitive areas of floor exercise, vaulting, balance beam, and uneven parallel bars.

Besides their ever-increasing gymnastic ability, more importantly, the girls exhibited vast talents in creating original and varied routines which set them apart from many of the other Bay State Teams.

Although three strong competitors (Sue Donely, Rebecca Jones and Jennifer Taylor) will be graduating in June, the team next year will be comprised of many seasoned gymnasts who will surely experience another year of victories.

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL: KNEELING: S. Hulherin, P. Chiudioni, C. Lincoln, K. Gipps, K. Gipps, K. Salls. STANDING: D. Malone, C. Soma, L. Abelli, J. Heller, M. Chiappini, J. Hixon, Ms. Cross (Coach).

With varsity coach, Beth Cross, and returning assistant coach, Susan Joyce, girls basketball had a very successful season. The scoreboard was less impressive than expected, but the 2-7 record is somewhat deceiving. Good, solid basketball was played and most of the losses were close, "down to the wire" games.

The varsity squad was predominantly seniors, and the team play was excellent throughout the season. JV's were 6-3 and defeated several of their opponents by very comfortable margins. Both teams improved tremendously during the season, and the varsity nearly upset league leaders, Framingham North and also Wellesley, in their final game.

There is every reason to celebrate a good season this year, and although the team loses seven seniors, next year's season is promising and should provide a more impressive scoreboard for '75!

South High's Basketball team had a tough beginning against tough teams, although they improved tremendously as the season progressed. Much of the team's success can be attributed to the body co-ordination and versatility of Mike Lewis, the "downtown" shooting of Rufus Harris, the defensive power of John Galvani, and the consistent rebounding by Wessels, O'Neil, and Thayer. Since the team is only losing two starting players and Captains Galvani and Lewis, they should expect an experienced and strong team for next season.

BAY STATE LEAGUE CHAMPS

To win the Bay State League Hockey Championship is a tremendous feat. To repeat the performance is all but impossible. This, however, was the aim of our senior-dominated hockey team, and they did it! Led by Co-captains Dave Leonardo and Jack Lowry, and seniors Chris Abelli, Bob DeSimone, Dick Fair, Mike Ferrazzi, Bob Macchi, Geoff Ventura and Rich Weston, this goal dominated the season and perpetuated a "never give up" attitude. The aim was finally realized in the last game with a win over Dedham; the Championship was ours! This job could never have been done without the help of Gene Crowly, Bill Drake, Ed Lill, Chris and Matt Keiley and Steve O'Neill.

GOAL BRINGS SOUTH TITLE

"I was coming in on left wing," says Jack, "and the puck came to me. I stopped it with my glove, then took it in on my backhand. I looked and saw the goalie coming across the net, then he went down. When I saw that I gave the backhand everything I had and tried to get it over him."

Which he did, as the puck whistled into the top right hand corner untouched, setting off a wild celebration that rocked Loring Arena for minutes. "I still don't know how he put that thing in the net," said Leonardo afterward. "He's incredible."

"The scene was the Framingham South locker-room last night after the Flyers had captured their second straight Bay State League hockey title. It was accomplished with flare, with drama, with just a pinch of the surrealistic."

There was a song; a symphony!
A melody unimpaired.
T'was so melodious and unrestrained
That its changes were not dared.

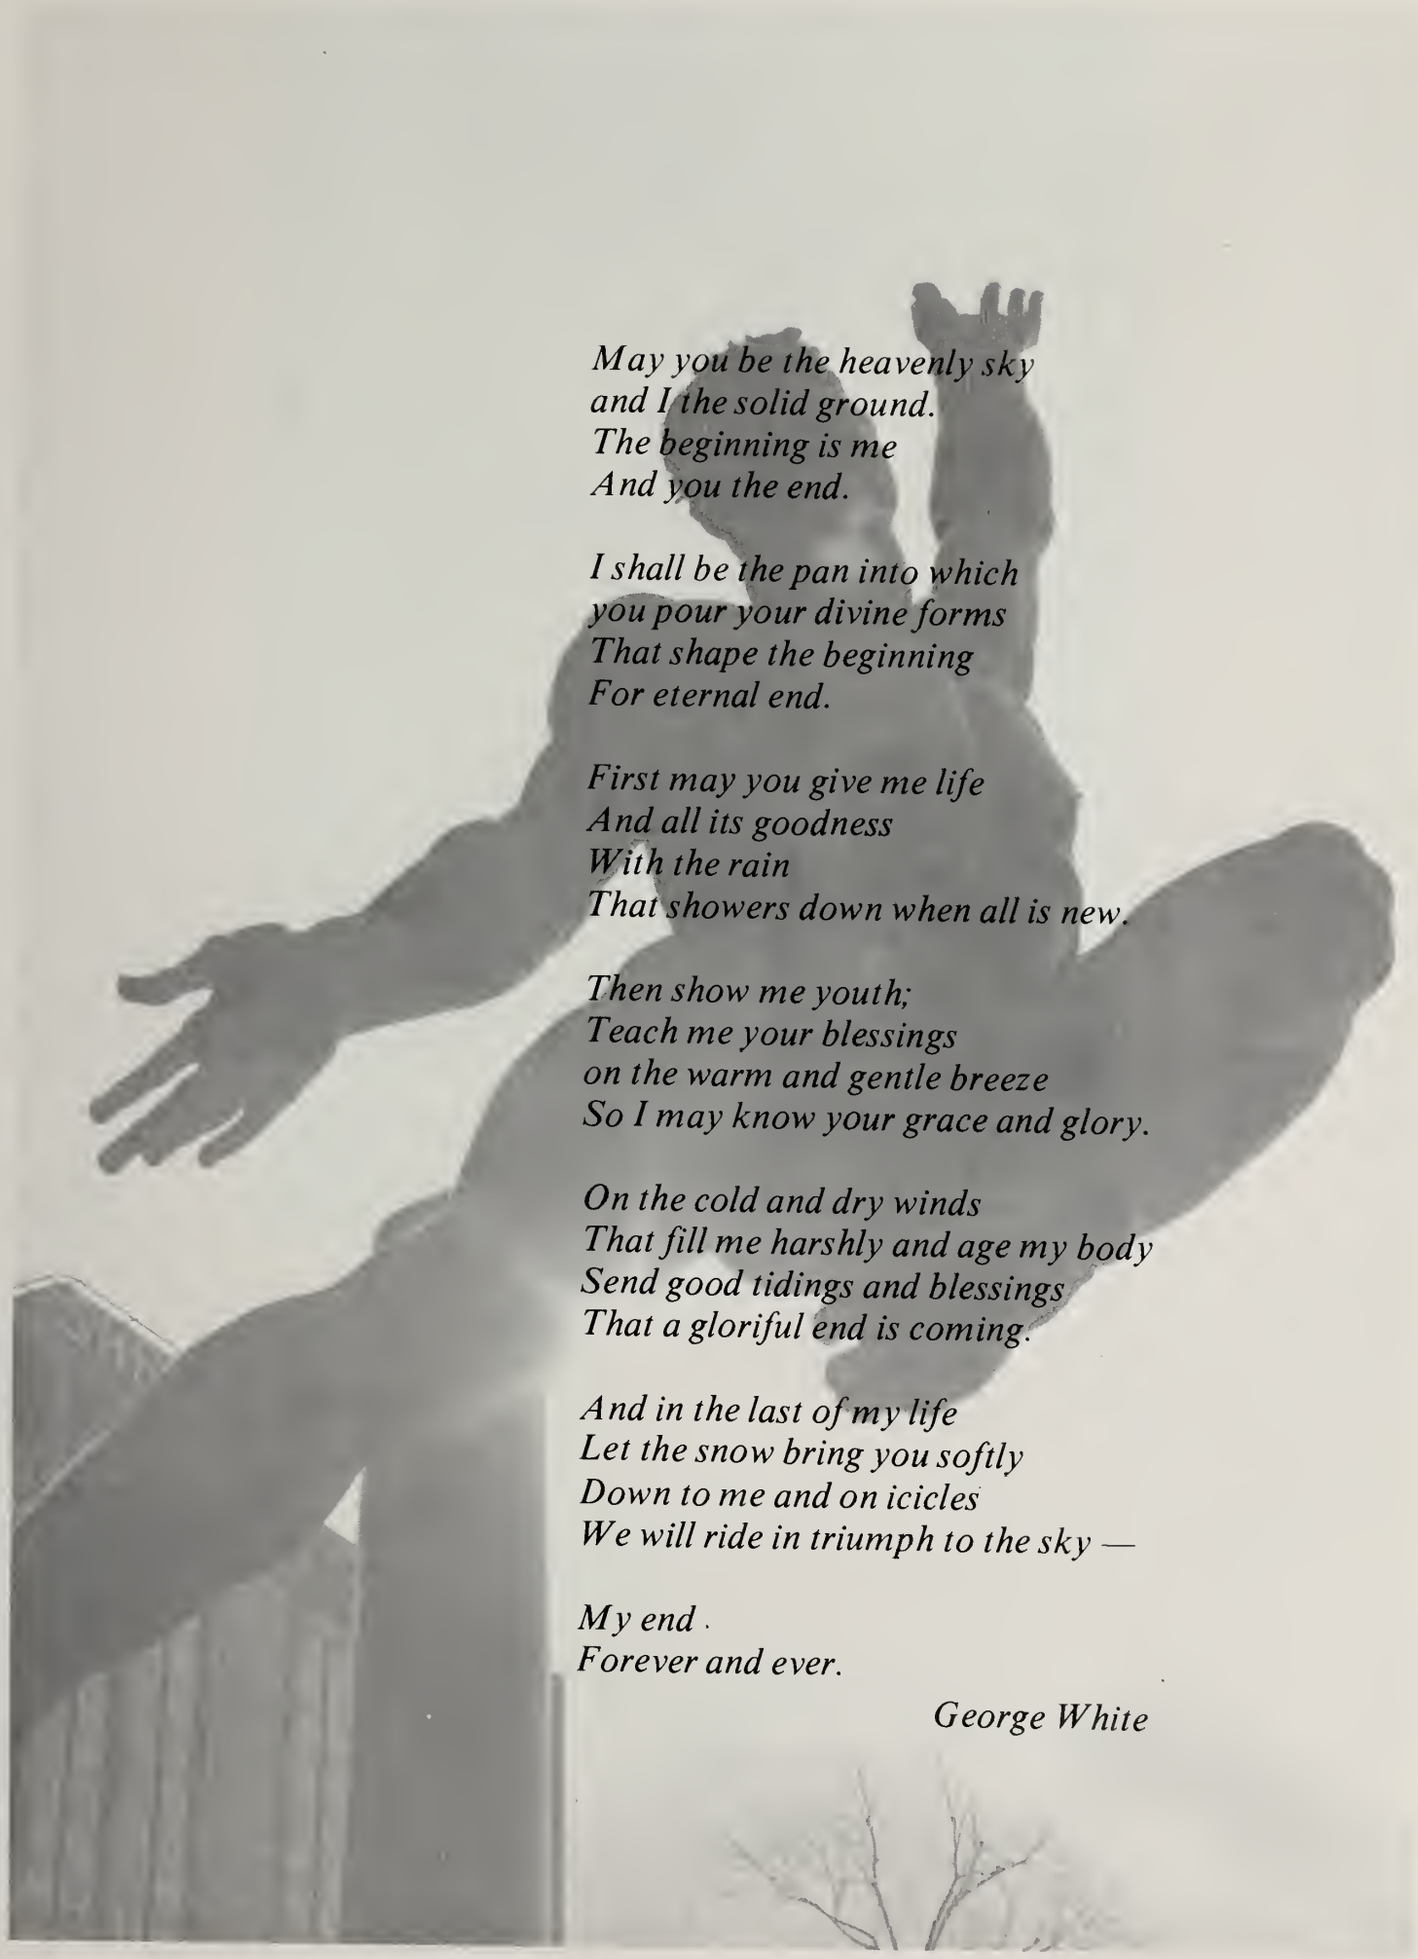

The singer tried to learn the song,
The musician played it easily;
The singer struggled but the song remained,
As unattainable and unrestrained.
The singer could not sing its lines,
(The musician had it memorized!)

Of course as poets weary of rhyme,
And singers voices sway with time,
The singer looked to other songs,
Which he could conquer right or wrong.

The musician played the song awhile
But then he bored and changed his style,
And looked to other symphonies
Which he was sure they would him please.

The song remained as most songs do,
Though mellowed with age yet spitefull still.
For many singers had sung in vain,
And many musicians had played her strains,
But none had loved and all had tried.

May you be the heavenly sky and I the solid ground.
The beginning is me
And you the end.

I shall be the pan into which you pour your divine forms
That shape the beginning
For eternal end.

First may you give me life
And all its goodness
With the rain
That showers down when all is new.

Then show me youth;
Teach me your blessings
on the warm and gentle breeze
So I may know your grace and glory.

On the cold and dry winds
That fill me harshly and age my body
Send good tidings and blessings
That a gloriful end is coming.

And in the last of my life
Let the snow bring you softly
Down to me and on icicles
We will ride in triumph to the sky —

My end .
Forever and ever.

There once was in the Kingdom of Grail
A day once a year when was delivered the mail.
When asked to explain the delay
The postmaster general had this to say
"It's because sir, it's delivered by snail."

Michael Roberts, Esq.

To a certain cleaning woman i know you are eighty — but that's not so old when you smile
(a smile of yellow, humble all yours and baking soda's).

always in white you come (on tuesdays and fridays to do our dirty work laundry and cleaning and mending (you are our sin eater).

your hands, red and gnarled from comet and twinkle and cascade — i want to kiss them.
your huge solid body bound up in a thousand different girdles and slips —
i want to hug it.

i want you to know, my friend (eighty years young), that i love the love you show us —
comforting sorrows, binding wounds,
forgiving sins,
washing clothes.

FALL

The dead flowers
the dead leaves
all fallen together

Their life all gone
not to live again
till spring

But their death tells the story
of life.
Cathy Noonan

Today has changed me
Once, all I needed were the wings that brought us together —
We sang of times when we wouldn't have to say good-bye anymore.
But time has come between us.
Growth in us — not distance between us has driven us apart.
Jet-Planes flying over water — once brought me to you,
Now they only make me think of sea-gulls flying free;
Soaring and diving,
Flying high and taking falls
I'll never be able to tell you — Shall we just drift apart,
The tide pulling you closer to shore —
And me out — out to some exotic island?

I don't know what happened.

A VENTURE

We look into the souls of each other, and realize that something's wrong — that bottomless deep understanding is gone — although we realize this (and know that they do too) we're unable to do anything — we certainly can't change them, for it would be sacrilege to take advantage of a non thinker (for what has he to defend himself)?
the wind blows — time changes, and here we are — and they are — still we are in search of some inconceivable understanding of peacelove
but as we think we are getting closer to this understanding — we are really getting further away — you seek

Set the bird free
Let it fly to its own shore my hands and heart are full no longer can i hold it here

no haven from the storms of life tossed by the currents of the air slight body vulnerable to any breeze with celestial wings unfurled

fly . . . soar . . . dip and glide sit high upon the mountain peak
a child of the wind and drifter of Long have we lived in harmonious accordance

my friend.
Long have the myriad delights
of life
wandered by our side.
Here now we stand together,
as our years and our tears as our laughter and our fears cascade down around us — tomorrow has found us.
The pieces lay shattered at our feet.
Long have our lives entwined
my friend.
Long have we stood
here amidst this inconceivable world, Yet the bird of time is calling his silver wings unfolded.

Looking back on these past four years we realize just how much the character of each individual in our class has been developed. Our personalities have individualized and now we each have a unique set of values that are all our own. Soon we will have to put these values to the test. We will sometimes be alone, and we will sometimes be together . . . we will be able to cope with any situation that arises because our experiences with each other have strengthened us. This has been a learning experience that none of us will ever forget. It may be only in the future that we fully realize the wealth of knowledge that we have gained . . . for we will never pass this way again.

When we came in as Freshman, we were like unmixed jello, with no shape or form. As time went by, we added the water and are now in the process of congealing. Slowly but surely we're solidifying into one group. We are developing as people, apart from others; but also together, forming a distinct section of South High, which is striving to live up to the name of The Class of '75.

We come to South very excited, a little awed and somewhat unsure of ourselves. With the warmth, leadership, and friendliness of this year's seniors, Mr. Brunelle and Mrs. Savas, we have grown and experienced much. Crane's Beach, the car wash, and the ski trip have created some very warm memories. We are still growing, but not so quickly that we are unable to stop and look behind. For although tomorrow locks up its own secret, yesterday holds the key and today is a door always to be opened.

Entering South High is a new and challenging experience for all Freshmen. We entered a new type of school situation. Besides being lost for a week or so, we were also introduced to a new learning experience and a new type of school government.

With the help of our class advisor, Miss Colbath, we were able to run a fairly successful raffle and dance. In the spring, we hope to have a few more activities to add some money to our treasury. Although we have not accomplished too much, as far as money goes, we have learned from our experiences and have had a lot of fun doing it.

Jesse Regalado — Philippines

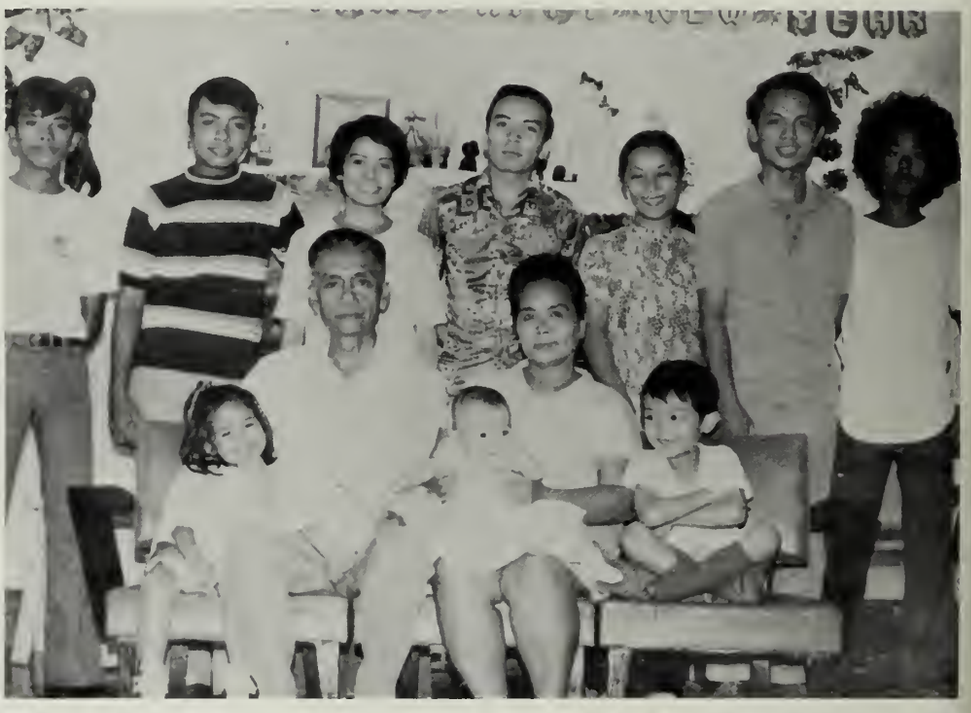

My year in the United States as an American Field Service student is the most exciting and rewarding experience of my life.

My stay has been filled with new experiences, new friendships, and new challenges. The opportunity I have been given, of being a part of an American home and school is one that I will always cherish. Meeting other students in AFS was not only fun and exciting, but it also helped broaden my knowledge and understanding of other people. The year has gone by so fast and the time has come to say good-bye to a year of my life, a year of new horizons, football games, hockey games, shoveling snow, raking leaves, catching the school bus and many, many more memories.

I express my sincere gratitude to my American family, my teachers and to all my friends for the generosity I can never equal in return.

Jesse Regalado

Tammy Mueller — South Africa

"Walk together, talk together, o ye peoples of the earth; then and only then shall ye have peace."

That is AFS. After living with the South Africans for a year, I came to love them as I do my own family. The people were warm, friendly and always ready with a helping hand. The country is very beautiful, modern yet so untouched by commercialism. The hospital where the first heart transplant was performed creates such a contrast with the African tribal life. In this country of the old and new, I came to realize that one does not have to stay in their own land to find a home.

"Welcome to the Theatre" is the key phrase at South High for Drama in 1974. With a Drama Club of eighty members — five major productions scheduled for the year — and six courses in theatre being offered, the Drama Program is off and running. With continued support from the administration, faculty and student body, we can guarantee dramatic productions of the finest quality in the state. Our audience is the key to our success; please keep up your support!

The goal of the International Language Club is to expose foreign language students to the customs and culture of the various countries. Each month a club presents a program dealing with some aspect of their country's cuture. This goal was reached in December when the I.L.C. sponsored a Christmas party combining the customs of each clubs' country. STUDENT CRIER

This year, the Student Crier has attempted to be more representative of the entire student body. We have enlarged the sports section to include the most popular sports events as well as those less well received. Many students welcomed the return of the "Grapevine". Larger editorial and feature sections have compensated for the lack of news articles. The Student Crier has tried to reach the student body and make it aware of the need for a school paper; however, the amount of subscriptions fell to its lowest point ever. Although the paper has gained continuity, school support has fallen off.

THE PAGE

Mrs. Grode — Advisor

The Page is South High's creative publication. From our humble beginnings as a single page in the Student Crier, we have progressed to become a complete magazine. This year we published one issue in the spring. It contains a variety of literary, artistic, photographic, and musical works submitted by both students and teachers.

"A Friend"

Congratulations to the Class of 1974

We know the sigh of relief that comes at the end of your final exam. Long years of study behind you, and a big wide world ahead.

But even at that it isn't the final test — or the end of your learning. The biggest tests still face you in the choice and fulfillment of your life's work. Many plan for college, some must reckon with the armed forces. Others will seek positions in industry, trade, business. We, at Dennison, congratulate you on your past accomplishments; if your future plans call for steady employment or summer work, we'll be glad to discuss your problems with you.

Our Employment Department will welcome the chance to outline opportunities existing in our offices, factory, and warehouse.

A friend

You're about to take a giant step forward into your future. We think we can make it the bright one you want it to be at New England Telephone. With a job that's every bit as big as your ambition. You see, we need people. With all kinds of talents. And especially, people who really want to get going with their future. And want to be rewarded with automatic raises. If you want a job and a future that's tailored to your talent... along with unusually generous fringe benefits, stop in and see your guidance counselor. Ask when and where you can apply for an interview with the people who want to make your future as happy as you want it to be.

New England Telephone An equal opportunity employer

We are proud of the part Westwood Studios has played in the production of your yearbook.
It is with this same pride in our work, and our interest in producing better portraits and candids that we hope you may call upon our services in the future.

SINCERE APPRECIATION TO . . .

Every editor and staff member who gave a part of their time and themselves to the production of the yearbook, and who gave me the support and confidence needed at deadline time.

Mr. Charles Hatch, Philomath Advisor
Mr. Paul Zaido, Business Advisor

SPECIAL THANKS TO . . .

Those special people who worked throughout the year without ever losing their enthusiasm and creativity . . .

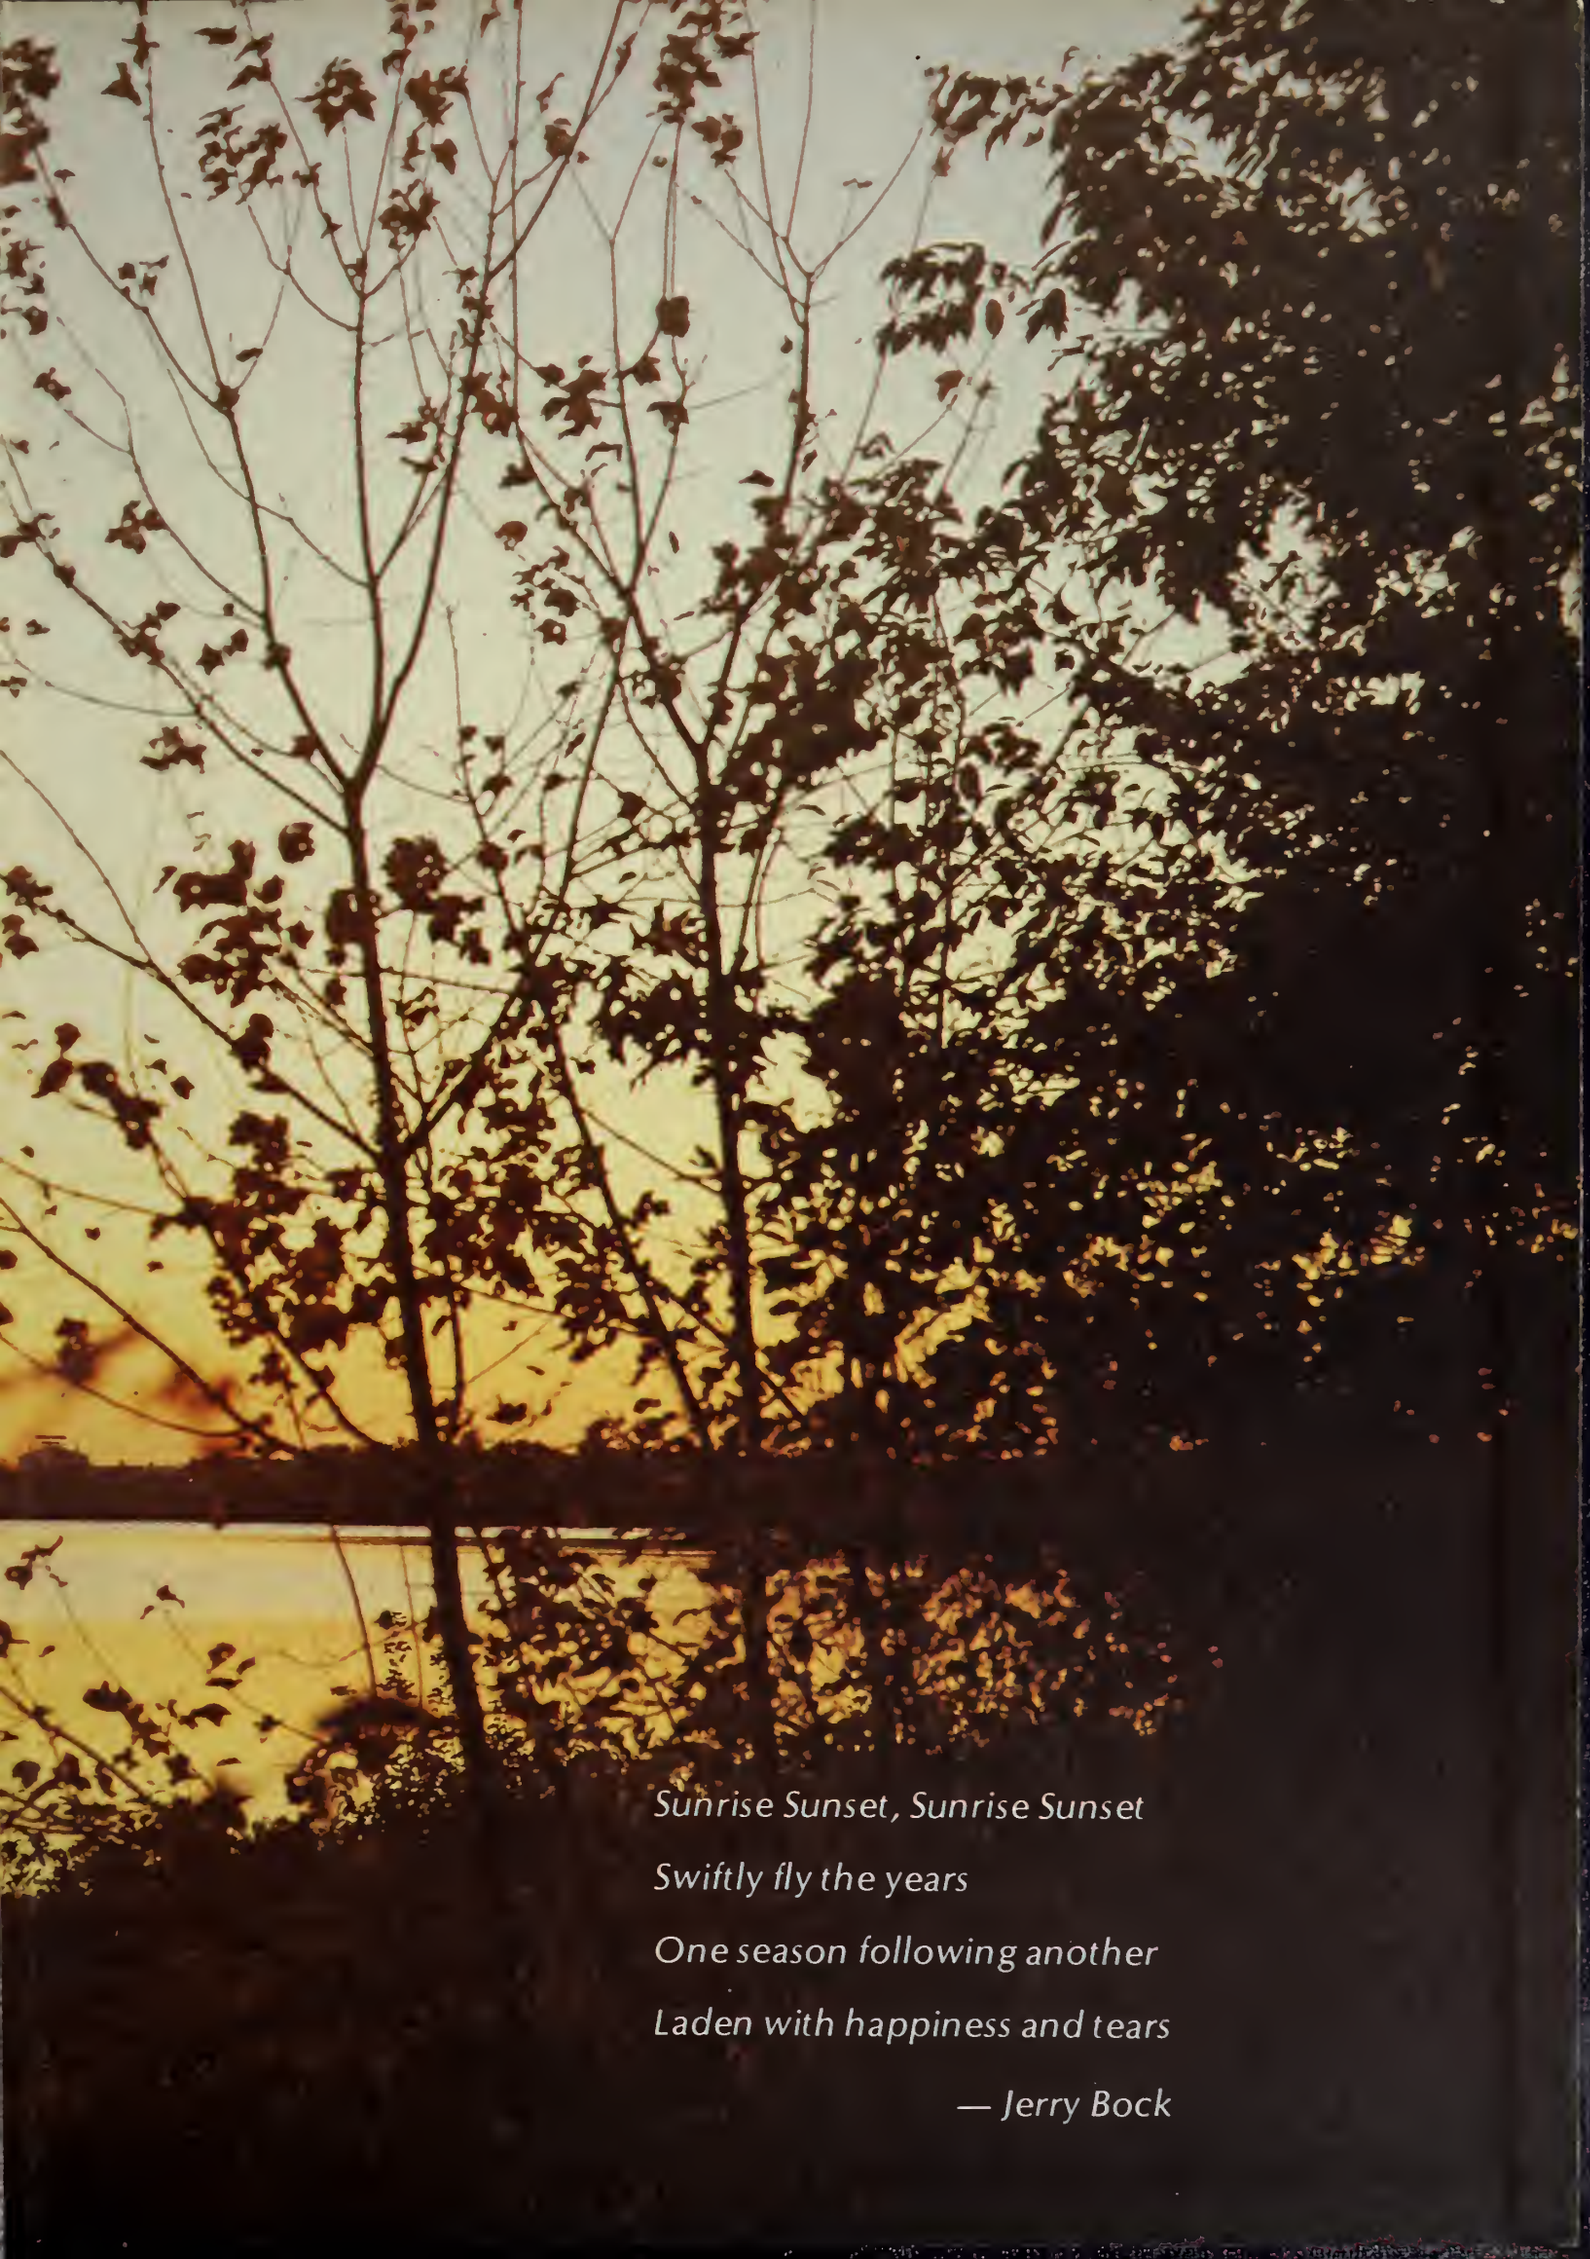

Jennifer Taylor

Mike Roberts

Joe, Wendy, and Bob of Westwood Studios for the photography that truly captured the spirit of our school.

Bob Moore and the American Yearbook Company for their constant help and a superior publishing job.
